17. Properly Alterations. Tenant shall not make any alterations, additions or improvements to the Property (including the application of paints, stains, nails or screws to the woodwork, walls, floors or furnishings) without first obtaining the express written consent of Landlord.

18. Insurance. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord's insurance does not cover Tenant's personal property. Landlord shall not be responsible for damage caused by fire, theft, rain, war, acts of God, acts of others and/or any other causes, nor shall Landlord be held liable for such losses. Tenant is hereby advised to obtain a Renter's Insurance policy to cover Tenant's personal property.

19. Landlord Entry of Property. In addition to the rights provided by the laws applicable to the State of Oregon, Landlord shall have the right to enter the Property after providing a 24 hour notice of entry. Notice shall be for the purpose of showing the Property to prospective tenants or purchasers, inspecting the Property, making such reasonable repairs and alterations as may be deemed necessary by Landlord for the preservation of the Property and to remove any alterations, additions, fixtures and any other objects which may be affixed or erected in violation of the terms of this Agreement. Tenant agrees to waive notice in the event that Tenant provides written or verbal authorization for Landlord's entry. In the event of an emergency, no prior notice will be given but a notice of entry will be provided within 24 hours of the emergency entry.

20. Possession and Surrender. At the termination of this Agreement, Tenant shall immediately surrender the Property to Landlord in the same condition as at the start of the Agreement, reasonable wear and tear elements accepted. Tenant shall return a complete set of keys, including any postal, amenity access cards, or garage door remote controls provided during the term of this Agreement to Landlord and provide in writing, Tenant's forwarding address. If any of Tenant's possessions remain in the Property after the expiration or termination of this Agreement without Landlord's written permission, Landlord may recover possession of the Property in the manner provided for by law and impose additional rent and damages charges, which may include damages due to Landlord's loss of prospective new tenants.

21. Lease Extension. Tenant may extend the length of this Agreement by contacting Landlord by which is sixty days prior to the expiration of this Agreement. Landlord shall then provide Tenant with a written Lease Extension (the "Extension") detailing the timelines and lease rates to be in effect during the Extension period. Landlord may increase the Lease Rate to reflect current market leasing rates. Lease extensions for period of less than six months typically include an increase in the Lease Rate of at least 10%. Tenant must return a signed copy of the Extension to Landlord within one week of its receipt by Tenant for the Extension to be effective. Landlord, at Landlord's sole option, may accept or deny an Extension request. If an Extension is denied, or Landlord does not receive the Extension form signed by Tenant in the required timeframe, then Tenant must move out at the end of the Leasing Period. In the absence of a signed Extension between Landlord and Tenant, the Lease Rate shall automatically increase by 10% per month, but in no event less than $50 per month.

22. Termination. Tenant shall provide Landlord with 60-day's notice of their intent to vacate the Property no earlier than 60 days prior to the expiration of the Lease Term. Such notice shall include a single forwarding address for Landlord Notices and Deposits. After expiration of the Lease Term, and in the absence of a written Lease Extension between Landlord and Tenant, or in the event of default under this Agreement by Tenant, then Tenant shall be required to vacate the Property, and shall receive Notice of Termination from Landlord. Where laws require "just cause", such just cause shall be stated on the Notice. The premises shall be considered vacated only after all areas including storage areas are clear of all Tenant belongings and keys and other property furnished for Tenant use are returned to Landlord. Should Tenant fail to vacate by the termination date Tenant shall be liable to Landlord for additional prorated daily rent and damages, which may include damages due to Landlord for loss of prospective new tenants.

24. Abandonment. Abandonment is defined as absence of Tenant from the premises for a period of seven (7) or more consecutive days while lease payments or any owing monies remain unpaid - whereupon Tenant will be considered in breach of this Agreement and the Lease terminated. If Tenant abandons the Property during the term of this Agreement, Landlord may enter the Property by any legal means, without being liable for such entering and without becoming liable to Tenant for damages caused upon entering. Landlord may consider any personal property belonging to Tenant and left: on the property to also have been abandoned, in which case Landlord may dispose of all such property in the manner outlined by state law without becoming liable to Tenant for doing so. Landlord will make reasonable efforts to lease the abandoned Property for fair lease value. If Landlord leases the Property for a term beginning before the expiration of the Lease Agreement, the Lease Agreement terminates as of the date of the new tenancy. Tenant shall be liable for any remaining funds due to Landlord through the term of this Agreement if a new tenant is not found.

25. Assignment, Sub-Let, and License. Tenant shall not assign this Agreement, sub-let or grant any license to other person(s) for the use of the Property or any part thereof without the prior written consent of Landlord. Consent by Landlord to one such assignment, sub-letting or license shall not be deemed to be a consent to any subsequent assignment, sub-letting or license. An assignment, sub-letting or license without the prior written consent of Landlord or an assignment or sub-letting by operation of law shall be absolutely null and void and shall, at Landlord's option, terminate this Agreement rendering Tenant liable for any remaining funds through the end of the lease term.

26. Default. Subject to any 72-hour notice or other legally permitted notice pursuant to the Oregon Residential Landlord Tenant Act if Tenant fails to fulfill or perform any obligation under this Agreement, Tenant shall be in default of this Lease. Tenant shall receive 30 days' notice by Landlord to cure the default. In the event Tenant does not cure a default, Landlord may at Landlord's option cure such default and the cost will be added to Tenant's financial obligations under this Agreement, or declare Tenant in default of the Agreement. Landlord may re-enter the premises and re-take possession of the Property in the event of default. After default, Tenant may be held liable for the balance of the unpaid rent under this Agreement if Landlord cannot obtain a replacement tenant for the Property during the remaining term of this Agreement. All costs directly associated with obtaining a replacement tenant for the Property will be deducted from Tenant's security deposit. These costs may include, but are not limited to; advertising, repairs, showing and mailings.

27. Late Rent. Rent is due on the 1st. Rent is late on or after the 2nd. If rent is not paid by the 1st, a 72-hour notice shall be issued by posting of said notice on the front door of the premises together with a first-class mailing of said notice to the subject premises on the same day. (required) Tenant may provide notice to landlord by mailing the notice by first class mail to landlord at the address designated in the rental agreement.

28. Legal Fees. If Tenant is in breach of this Agreement and Landlord finds it necessary to enforce this Agreement, or collect lease or other damages through an attorney or in a legal action, Landlord shall be indemnified by Tenant for any reasonable attorneys' fees and out-of-pocket costs which in any way relate to, or were precipitated by the breach of this Agreement by Tenant.

29. Waiver. Landlord's failure to enforce or insist on compliance with any provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed neither a waiver nor a limitation of Landlord's right to enforce or insist on compliance with other the provisions of the Agreement.

30. Binding Effect. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all of the covenants, conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall apply to and bind the parties and the heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties.

31. Headings. Headings are inserted for the convenience of the parties only and are not to be considered when interpreting this Agreement.

32. Severability. Should any conflicts arise between Tenant and Landlord regarding any part of this Agreement, the applicable legislation of the State of Oregon will prevail and such provisions of the Agreement will be amended or deleted as necessary in order to comply with the State Laws. Furthermore, any provisions that are required by State Laws may be subsequently incorporated into this Agreement. In the event any of the provisions of this Agreement are held to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, those provisions to the extent enforceable and all other provisions will nevertheless continue to be valid and enforceable as though the invalid or unenforceable parts had not been included in this Agreement.

33. Time is of the Essence. Time is of the essence in this Agreement.

34. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon.

35. Amendment of Agreement. Any amendment or modification of this Agreement or additional obligations assumed by either party in connection with this Agreement will only be binding if evidence in writing signed by both parties.

36. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire Agreement between the parties and supersedes any prior written or oral covenants or representations relating thereto and not set forth herein shall be binding on either party hereto. This Agreement may not be amended, modified, extended or supplemented except by written instrument executed by Landlord and Tenant. Landlord has made no representation or warranty to Tenant except as herein expressly set forth.
